

Listing Rules

1	Whitepaper and Product	Does the product have quality?	Weight (10/10)
	Innovation	New or improved technology which helps solve a problem, create a new market.	3
	Product / Minimum viable product (MVP)	The product or its MVP must have been realized and ready to be reviewed and evaluated.	5
	Roadmap	The company has clear roadmap on their product.	2
2	Team	Does the team have good performance?	Weight (10/10)
	Performances &amp; Reputations	The team has good performances and reputations on their previous products.	1
	Open-sourced &amp; Governance	Team has open-sourced their products and have open source governance model.	1
	Product &amp; Source code Qualities	The product has the good quality both on the product itself and its source code.	2
	Advisory Board	The team should have good advisory board members to help back up their product.	2
	Previous Exchanges Listing	The product listed on notable exchanges may be considered to have good quality.	4

3	Legal & Compliance	Does the product pass legal concerns?	Weight (10/10)
	SEC Compliance	The product must meet the requirements required by SEC.	3
	KYC/AML Compliance	The product must have good coverage on KYC/AML laws.	4
	Industry Compliance	The product must meet the laws required by its involved industries.	3
4	Market Supply	Does the product have good supply model?	Weight (10/10)
	Initial Pricing	The product must have reasonable initial pricing.	3
	Circulation	The product must define and have reasonable supply circulation.	3
	Liquidity for Exchange	The team should have enough supply for exchange to do operations and marketing if needed.	4
5	Market Demand	Does the product have good demand?	Weight (10/10)
	Customer Demand	The product must have reasonable initial pricing.	2
	Contributions to the Product	The product should have good contributions to its source code and should have good open source community.	8

6	Economic Model	Does the product have good economic model?	Weight (10/10)
	Transaction Processing Fees	The transaction processing fees must be in reasonable format.	1
	Staking	The product should have reasonable staking model, if any.	1
	Utility	The product should have reasonable utility model, if any.	3
	Rewards &amp; Penalties	The product should have reasonable rewards & penalties model, if any.	1
	Token Sales Structure &amp; Distribution	The product should have reasonable token sales structure and have good distribution plan (such as marketing and development budgets must be in good proportion).	2
	Transparency	The team should have transparency on how they will use the product's tokens and their budgets.	2

In order to protect the interests of investors, we reserve the right to delist the project or to continue to support the project trading on the platform. If the project team triggers the following conditions, we will announce the termination of the trading, including but not limited to:

- Disbanding of the project team.
- Project teams face major legal problems.
- As a result of strategic adjustment and development needs, the project operations team take the initiative to request the downline.

- Serious technical or security problems are not addressed in a timely manner.
- A serious lack of liquidity, with a daily average of less than 0.1 MUSD for 30 trading days.
- Significant discrepancies in information disclosure.
- Suddenly chain split.

We will issue delisting announcements 30 days in advance for projects that decide to take off, and users will have a 30-day deadline to withdraw the corresponding assets from the platform.

As of the current SEC regulations, we will not list cryptocurrency/token that falls into the following criteria;

- Meme Token
- Fan Token
- NFT
- Cryptocurrency/Token issued by Orbix, its directors, any controlling person or their family members and relatives, company or juristic person with controlling power, and its subsidiaries, mother companies or joint ventures.

Head office is located at 89 AIA Capital Center Building, Unit 701-703.
Ratchadaphisek Rd., Din Daeng, Din Daeng, Bangkok 10400
0 2026 6107

orbixtrade.com